

Adventure #1

Allow me to introduce myself. Tate is the name. Pinhole Tate. Friends call me PT. I was born July 20, 2010. I took my first adventure when I was just a day old. I saw a rabbit that likes to be scratched behind the ears, a shy squirrel, a windmill and much more. I took time out to have my picture made with the wonderful things I saw. Below are a few photos I took on my adventure. I used black and white film and processed with caffanol.
