

Sheila Rosamond

Antique Camera Collector

Email: Sheila@RetiredCameras.com

www.RetiredCameras.com

Agfa Ansco
No. 1 Ready Set Royal
c1931-1932

Folding camera with genuine leather covering in specially embossed and colored finish. The somewhat random radical striations and the brown & black mottled colors give the appearance of the fur of a silver fox. The exposed metal parts are grey enameled. Black bellows; chrome trim. Originally packaged in silver-colored cardboard box.

Acquired: October 15, 2000. Purchased at Looking Glass Antique Mall in Lewisville, Texas for $45.

Agfa Ansco

Agfa Ansco
D-6 Shur-Shot Special
c1935-1941

Same as Shur-Shot Regular, but with built-in closeup lens. Early type, c1935, has black art-deco faceplate, has vertical band of 30 narrow stripes, flanked by three stars on each side of the lens. Later, c1939, has light face with U-shaped band of 6 thin black stripes.

Acquired: cAugust 2004. Gift from a friend.

Agfa Ansco

Agfa Ansco
Shur-Flash
c1953

Basic box camera with flash attachment. The film box still contains two unopened rolls of film. There is one opened roll, but it does not appear to have been exposed. Looks like it was just opened and placed back inside the foil wrapper. The expiration date on the back of the film box says May 1961.

Acquired: June 2005. Gift from parents.

Agfa Ansco

Agfa AnSCO
Super Regent
1954-1960

Made by Agfa Munchen; the AnSCO equivalent of the Agfa Super solinette. CRF. Solinar f3.5 lens in Synchro-Compurshutter Acquired: June 11, 2000. Purchased at Montgomery Street Antique Mall in Fort Worth, Texas for $21.

Agfa AnSCO

Argus
C2? C3?
1938-1966

Not sure of the exact model. Identical to the C2, but with black instead of silver shutter cock lever. Lever and shutter release button are like the C3 model.

Acquired: July 2005. Gift from parents.

Argus

Argus
Argoflex E
1940-1948

Focusing 3-element, f4.5/75mm, Varex
Anasigmat; shutter b-200

Acquired: 1996. Gift from a friend.

Argus

Argus
Argoflex Seventy-five 1949-1958

Black plastic body, fixed focus

Argus

Argus
C-twenty 1956-1958

Replaced the A4, using the same basic body style but incorporating a rangefinder. Brown plastic body.

Acquired: July 2005. Friend picked up for me at an auction in Ben Wheeler, TX for $10.

Argus

Braun
Paxette
1953

Looks like a rangefinder camera, but actually houses an extinction meter in the second window. Slightly raised accessory shoe and frame counter in front of shoe. Kata f2.8/45mm Acquired: July 2005. Friend picked up for me at an auction in Ben Wheeler, TX for $10.

Braun

Camera Corp of America
Perfex Fifty Five
1940-1945

Wollensak Velostigmat lens. Focal-plane shutter, 1-1250, B, sync. CRF. Extinction meter and exposure calculator.

Acquired: July 2005. Friend picked up for me at an auction in Ben Wheeler, TX for $10.

Camera Corp of America

Century
Master Studio
c Early 1900s

Master Studio camera and stand. Crank on side of stand for raising and lowering camera.

Acquired: December 19, 2001. Purchased at Looking Glass Antique Mall in Lewisville, Texas for $900.

Century

Eastman Kodak
No. 3A Folding Pocket Kodak
Model B-4
1903-1912

Vertical folding-bed camera for 3 1/4 X 5 1/2 exposures on 122 rollfilm (introduced for this camera). Flat, rectangular front door. Red bellows (black after August 1912). Polished-wood insets on bed.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
No. 3A Folding Pocket Kodak
Model B-4
1912-1915

Vertical folding-bed camera for 3 1/4 X 5 1/2 exposures on 122 rollfilm (introduced for this camera). Flat, rectangular front door. Red bellows (black after August 1912). Polished-wood insets on bed.

Acquired: 1998. Gift from a friend.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
No. 2A Brownie Model C
1907-1933

Aluminum body with blue covering.

Acquired: March 27, 2000. Purchased for $45.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
No. 2A Brownie
1907-1933

Early models have cardboard bodies, later ones have aluminum bodies.

Acquired: June 10, 2001. Purchased at Antiques Etc in Lewisville, Texas for $10.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
No. 3A Folding Brownie
1909-1915

Identifiable by their square-cornered bodies and horizontal format.

Acquired: Purchased at West End antique shop in Dallas, Texas for $95.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
No. 1A Autographic Kodak Junior 1914-1927

The Autographic feature was introduced by Kodak in late 1914, and was available on several lines of cameras.

Acquired: March 2000. Purchased for $33.60.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
No. 3A Folding Autographic
Brownie
1916-1926

A continuation of the Folding Brownie Camera series, but with the addition of the "Autographic" feature. About 1916, when the 3A size was introduced, they were all given the new rounded ends.

Acquired: April 1, 2000. Purchased at Lookng Glass Antique Mall in Lewisville, Texas for $49.50.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
No. 2A Folding Cartridge Hawkeye
Model B
1926-1934

Single Achromatic or RR lens.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
No. 1A Pocket Kodak Series II
1928-1932

Blue, Meniscus Achromatic lens in Kodex shutter.

Acquired: July 3, 2000. Purchased at Looking Glass Antique Mall in Lewisville, Texas for $42.57.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
Anniversary Kodak
1930

Special edition of the No. 2 Hawk-Eye Camera Model C, issued to commemorate the 50th anniversary of Eastman Kodak Co. Approximately 550,000 were given away to children 12 years old in 1930. Covered with a tan-colored reptile-grained paper covering with a gold-colored foil seal on the upper rear corner of the right side.

Acquired: January 4, 1999. Purchased at Antiques Etc. in Lewisville, Texas for $9.50.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
Jiffy Kodak Six-16
1933-1937

Art-deco enameled front.

Acquired: 1996. Gift from a friend.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
Flying Film Co.

Round foil label on the side is embossed with "Mail Your Films To Flying Film Co. San Antonio Texas"

Acquired: March 20, 2000. Purchased for $48.71.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
Six-16 Brownie Junior 1934-1942

Box camera with art-deco front.

Acquired: 1997. Gift from a friend.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
Kodak Jr. Six-16 Series II
1937-1940

Quick release bar at front of bed.

Acquired: 1999. Gift from a friend.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
Kodak Jr. Six-20 Series III
1938-1939

Self-erecting, streamlined bed supports.

Acquired: March 26, 2000. Purchased at Texas Star Antique Mall in Forney, Texas for $28.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
Kodak Vigilant Six-20
1939-1949

Folding rollfilm camera with folding optical finder and body release.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
Brownie Flash Six-20
1940-1954

Metal trapezoid box camera.

Acquired: 1997. Purchased at First Monday in Canton, Texas along with case.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
Six-20 Flash Brownie
1940-1954

Metal trapezoid box camera.

Acquired: April 2001. Gift from parents. I had already purchased the flash on September 18, 1999 at Underwood Antique Mall in Mason when I purchased a Spartus Press Flash Camera. Little did I know that I would receive the camera that went with it a few years later.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
Target Brownie Six-16
1941-1946

Metal and leatherette box camera. Name changed from Target Brownie to Brownie Target in 1946.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
Brownie Target Six-16
1946-1951

Metal and leatherette box camera. Name changed from Target Brownie to Brownie Target in 1946.

Acquired: May 1, 2005. Purchased on ebay for $9.99.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
Duaflex II
1950-1954

TLR camera with fixed-focus Kodak f/15 lens.

Acquired: June 2005. Gift from parents.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
Brownie Hawkeye Flash Camera
1950-1961

Molded plastic box camera.

Acquired: c1997. Gift from parents.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
Duaflex IV
1955-1960

TLR camera with Kodar 72mm f/8 lens.
Brown leatherette and plastic covering.

Acquired: September 9, 2005. Gift from a friend.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
Pony IV
1957-1961

Non-interchangeable Kodak Anastar
f3.5/44mm

Acquired: July 2005. Friend picked up for me at an auction in Ben Wheeler, TX for $10.

Eastman Kodak

Eastman Kodak
Instamatic 300
1963-1966

Coupled selenium meter. Pop-up flash.
Made in USA, England and Canada.

Acquired: April 2005. Gift from parents.

Eastman Kodak

Houghton
Ensign Cadet?
1927-1931

Maroon leather grained covering, Everset
I+T shutter, achromatic lens.

Acquired: Purchased at West End antique shop in Dallas, Texas for $35.

Houghton

Mec
Mec 16
1956-1960

By Feinwerktechnik, Lahr, Germany for 10x14mm exposures on 16mm film in cassettes. Pull-out finder protects double exposure. Lenses: Color Ennit 2,8/20 & Heligon 2/22 all metal focal plane shutter 1/30 - 1/1000 Sek.

Acquired: c2002. Purchased from a maintenance man for $20.

Mec

Polaroid
Polaroid Land Camera Model 95
1948

The first instant picture camera. Folding design. Apertures f11-f45, speeds 1/8-1/60s, linked and controlled by single dial, numbered 1-8. Took Polaroid's first instant rollfilm to make sepia pictures in around a minute. Early models had rigid viewfinder mast, later models had a folding mast.

Acquired: February 11, 2001. Purchased at Montgomery Street Antique Mall in Fort Worth, Texas for $32.50 with case.

Polaroid

Rochester
Empire State View
c1895

Folding field camera. Polished wood.
Brass fittings.

Acquired: January 29, 2000. Purchased at Looking Glass Antique Mall in Lewisville,
TX for $600 with tripod.

Rochester

Rochester
Cycle Poco?
c Early 1900s

Patents on camera are February 6, 1900 and July 23, 1901, folding-bed plate, leather covered wood body, nicely finished wood interior and maroon bellows

Acquired: November 29, 2000. Gift from a friend.

Rochester

Sears

Sears Tower 51 (1958a) 1958

Similar to the Tower 51 (1957) but with LEFT hand film advance. The film advance is a two-piece hinged lever, concentric with the rewind knob, Cassar f2.8/50mm in Prontor-SVS shutter. B, 1-300.

Acquired: 1997. Purchased at a camera show in Grapevine, Texas.

Sears

Sears
Sears KSX Super
c1981

Electronic focal plane (metal) shutter. B, 16s-1/1000 shutter speeds. Aperture priority automatic exposure or metered manual modes.

Acquired: c1994. Purchased at a pawn shop in Tyler, Texas. I purchased for use in a college photography class.

Sears

Spartus
Spartus Press Flash
1939-1950

Bakelite box camera. Advertised in April 1939 under both Spartus Press Flash (Utility Mfg. Co.) and Falcon Press Flash names. First camera to have a built-in flash reflector. Historically significant and interesting from a design standpoint.

Acquired: September 18, 1999.
Purchased at Underwood Antique Mall in Mason, Texas for $37.71.

Spartus

Star-Lite
Star-Lite
1962

Japanese "Hit" type novelty camera.

Acquired: May 28, 1999. Purchased at antique store in Tyler, Texas for $40.50.

Star-Lite

Wirgin
Edinex
1930s-1950s

Telescoping front, film loads from bottom.

Acquired: February 26, 2000. Purchased from Keh Camera Outlet in Dallas, Texas for $45.

Wirgin

Yashica

Yashica D

1958-1974

Speeds and apertures controlled by thumb wheels; settings visible in small windows above viewing lens. TLR, Yashikor f3.5/80mm lens in Copal MXV 500 shutter.

Acquired: c1995. Purchased at Arlington Camera in Arlington, Texas for about $95. I purchased for use in a college photography class. It served its purpose and now makes a nice addition to my antique camera collection.

Yashica

Yashica
Electro 35 GSN
1973

Following the successful Electro 35, the name continued to be applied to a full line of rangefinder cameras. Some are marked "Hong Kong". Models include : Electro 35 CC, FC, GL, GS, GSN (pictured), GT, GTN, MC and Professional.

Acquired: March 18, 2005. Purchased at an auction in Mineola, Texas for $5 with case.

Yashica